Sarasota Medieval Fair is holding Open Auditions for General Cast!

Sarasota, FL (July 1, 2010) -- The Seventh Annual Sarasota Medieval Fair is having open auditions for all ages at the Sarasota Fairgrounds on August 7th & 8th, 2010 from 10:00am - 3:00pm. Novices and experienced players are encouraged to come out for the General Cast and the Human Combat Chessmatch.

Journey back to the time of Avalon where Merlin resurrects old friends and enemies most known as King Arthur, his Knights of the Round Table, Mordred, Morgan Le Fae, and many more from legends of old. Players are needed to help create this vision to be set in medieval time and members of the community are encouraged to come out and participate in this historical event!

Rehearsals are weekly, starting towards the end of August and will be taught the basics in improv, costuming, and history. Those participating in the Human Combat Chessmatch will be taught the basics to more advanced techniques of staged stunt combat.

Potential cast members are encouraged to email the Entertainment Director, Dean Bowden at starsbars61@msn.com for further questions. Marketing and Sponsorship inquiries contact Marketing@SarasotaMedievalFair.com. The event dates are November 13-14 & 19-22, 2010. Please visit the website at www.SarasotaMedievalFair.com for further details.
